

Quiz #5
Kidnapped by UFO's

1. What impact has Whitley Strieber's book, Communion had on the UFO abduction phenomenon?
2. T/F Books on abductions outnumber all other subjects in the field of ufology.
3. Who were Betty and Barney Hill?
4. How has hypnosis been used to explore the abduction experience?
5. T/F It is rare for a UFO abduction investigator to use leading questions during a hypnosis session.
6. T/F Abductions often begin with the perception of very bright light.
7. T/F The visions of abductees are analogous to the experiences of religious ecstasies who reported seeing angels, demons and devils.
8. Why do so many abductions involve the probing of the genitals?
9. What kinds of gospel have alien abductions offered?
10. T/F The body can remember things that the conscious mind cannot.
11. In regards to the causes of alien abduction, contrast the views of Carl Sagan with those of John Mack and Bud Hopkins.
12. What is recovered memory? Why is it so controversial?
13. Who is Elizabeth Loftus and what did her studies on recovered memory establish?

14. Why were there virtually no reports of flying saucers prior to the 20th century?
- a. the technologies of aliens had not yet advanced to that level
 - b. humans were not aware of what flying saucers were and thus were unlikely to recognize them
 - c. the media was very skeptical at the time and downplayed sightings
 - d. society wasn't technologically evolved enough for such images to seep into the human unconscious

Close Encounters of the Facial Kind

1. What does the archetypical alien face look like?

2. Most aliens are reported to have: (select those that apply)
 - a. double-slit nostrils
 - b. open mouths
 - c. diagonally oriented eyes
 - d. humanoid in shape

3. T/F Most alien encounters are reported under hypnotic regression.

4. T/F Human facial recognition appears to be prewired before birth.

5. T/F Newborns are able to see in color.

6. Prosopagnosia refers to: (select those that apply)
 - a. inability to recognize faces
 - b. perception of alien faces
 - c. perception of faces that aren't there
 - d. inability to recognize gender

7. T/F Due to the newborn's undeveloped perceptual abilities, their recognition of human faces may resemble those of archetypical aliens.

8. T/F It's possible that the template for a female UFO-type face is preprogrammed into the human brain.